STETSON OIL CO., Cleveland, O.
A number of our young men have been summons before the grand jury in Madisonville this week to tell what they know about crap shooting spud selling and pistol toting, but as such things don't happen in Earlington our boys of course are ignorant.

Mrs. J. H. Grant who has been quite sick for some weeks, died Sunday night at the hospital here where she had been carried to have an operation performed on her, but owing to her extreme weak condition was not done. She was buried on Sunday afternoon.

One of the most pleasant and profitable social events of the season was given at the rink Tuesday by the young ladies of the church of Immaculate Conception. A large crowd was in attendance and a neat sum was realized which will be used for that church. The young ladies wish to thank Mr. Cherryville, of the Pleasant View green house near Madisonville, for his kind donation of the beautiful flowers for the social Tuesday night.

We extend our hearty thanks to our friends who visited our store during the Civil War demonstration; and to those who did not witness this wonderful system of vanishing and graining we respectfully extend a cordial invitation to call now and we will teach you in five minutes how to finish old floors, doors or wood work of any kind so that they will have both the grain and color of hard wood.

PLENTY OF PROOF.

From People You Know—From Earlington Citizens.

The greatest skeptic can hardly fail to be convinced in the face of evidence like this. It is impossible to produce better proof of merit than the testimony of residents of Earlington, of people who can be seen at any time. Read the following case of it:

J. C. Oldham, living on Sobree St., Earlington, Ky., says: "I am glad to say a good word in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills. This remedy came to my notice when my wife was troubled with a very aggravating case of kidney complaint and I procured it for her at the St. Bernard drug store. She had doctored and taken many remedies but found no relief from a lame back. The secretions from her kidneys were also irregular and contained a dark sediment. It caused her great pain to straghten after stooping, and she was also greatly troubled with dizzy spells. Her health was in a much run down condition, and she felt miserable until she began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. After finishing the contents of three boxes her system was restored to its natural condition, all the pains had vanished and she enjoyed better health than before in years."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents Foster-Mulburn Co., Buffalo New York, sole agent for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has consistently warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! But here for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

CONDENSED STATE NEWS ITEMS.

A "Kid" Wedding.

An unusual wedding occurred near Seargent, Ky., Saturday night when Leonard Hall, a lad aged 15, son of Jos Hall, hard-shell Baptist minister, was married to little Miss Annie Proffitt, barely 12, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Proffitt, a poor widow.

The father of the groom officiated.

Harry G. Tandy Dead.

After a protracted illness of dropsy, death claimed Harry G. Tandy at Dawson Springs Thursday night where he was staying for the benefit of his health. Mr. Tandy 35 years old and one of the most prominent men of Paducah and well known all of the State. He had served as assistant to the Secretary of state and assistant to the Superintendent of Public Instruction of Gov. Beckham's administration.

Previous to the time he entered politics. Mr. Tandy was editor of the Paducah News which position of held for years. He was born in Hopkinsville and is survived by his wife and a daughter and two brothers.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Paducah in charge of the Elk's Lodge attended by a large number.

Persecution.

Persecution is not wrong because it is cruel, but cruel because it is wrong.—Whately.

COLORED COLUMN

MR. S. R. DRIVER, EDITOR

Rev. C. L. Diggs preached an excellent sermon at the Mt. Zion Baptist church on the 10th inst.

Rev. S. E. Newell is feeding the flock of the A. M. E. Z. church. His text "Learn of Me" was well presented and well received.

The May Fair by the ladies of the A. M. E. Z. church May 18 promises to be the best in its history. All should attend.

Any person having news of interest should place it with the editor by Monday at noon.

Everybody was pleased to shake the hand of our old friend, John Haddock, who paid a flying visit to his daughter, Mrs. W. M. Campbell.

Mrs. L. B. Cavanaugh, who has been sick, is improving.

Mrs. F. E. Driver, who has been quite ill, is improving.

Programme announcing the meeting of the State Epworth League at the C. M. E. church May 21-24 are out and from all accounts will be the biggest thing of its kind ever held in Earlington. The subjects are well arranged, and will be ably discussed by men and women of ability. The church is being renovated and all will be O. K. when the day for the convincing comes.

Keep Plants Healthy.

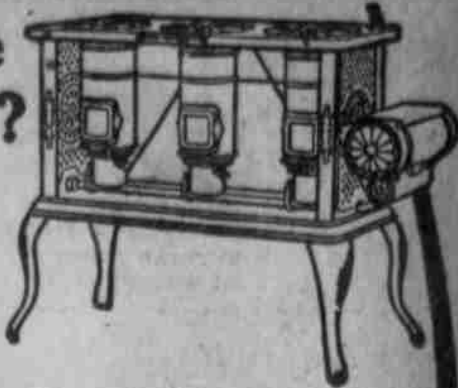

For cut or angle worms in house plants a drop or two of ammonia in the water, or put a few pieces of tobacco leaves in the dirt.

NO EXCUSE.

"Blushes are very common to most people, don't you think?" asked the vain young woman. "Yes," answered Miss Cayenne, "but that doesn't excuse the style of fiction that is becoming so prevalent."

What Stove for Summer?

Nothing adds to kitchen convenience in summer weather like a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove. Anything that any stove can do the "New Perfection" will do, and do it better. Bakes, roasts, boils, toasts; heats the wash water and the sad irons, and does it without dissipating its heat through the room to your discomfort. The actually keeps the kitchen cool—actually makes it comfortable for you while doing the family cooking, because, unlike the coal range, its heat is directed to one point only—right under the kettle. Made in three sizes, fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

NEW PERFECTION Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove

The Rayo LAMP

affords a mellow light that is very grateful to tired eyes—a perfect student or family lamp. Brass, nickel plated, hence more durable than other lamps. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

A Californian's Luck.

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," writes Charles F. Budahn, of Tracy, California. "Two 25c. boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and that yielded to no other treatment." Sold under guarantee by all leading druggists.

Ancient Houses Well Built.

As a result of recent excavations on the site of Jericho the historic city wall, constructed of burned lime brick upon a foundation of stone, has been laid bare, together with rows of houses, some of which could well be used for dwelling places for all the centuries which have passed since they were built.

The Difference.

A goose eats corn and grows feathers. A horse eats corn and grows hair. A coon eats corn and grows fur. A cow eats corn and grows milk. A hog eats corn and grows fat. A sheep eats corn and grows wool. A man eats corn and grows tired of it, and that's all he does grow.

Headache and Lops Feet.

Often it is found that a chronic sufferer from headache also complains of cold feet. This shows bad circulation and it should be strengthened. A simple and helpful remedy is to bathe the feet in cold water night and morning and rub briskly with a flesh brush or Turkish towel.

World's Best Clock.

The world's best timekeeper is said to be the electric clock in the basement of the Berlin observatory, which was installed by Prof. Foster in 1865. It is inclosed in an air-tight glass cylinder and has frequently run for periods of two or three months with an average daily deviation of only fifteen-thousandths of a second.

Sociology and Speculation.

A sociologist of genius who happened to care about money could probably make a fortune on the stock exchange, where knowledge of humanity is the essential thing. Henrik Ibsen was one of the most successful speculators in Europe.

World's Largest Book.

There lies in the British museum the largest book yet printed, a colossal atlas of engraved ancient Dutch maps. It takes three men to move it from the giant bookcase in which it is stored in the library of the museum. It is bound in leather, magnificently decorated and is fastened with clasps of solid silver, richly gilt. It is nearly seven feet high and weighs 800 pounds and was presented to King Charles II. before he left Holland in the year 1650.

Nation of Pie Eaters.

We are a nation of pie eaters. The pie is a national institution, almost a part of the national constitution. The great American pie belt grows wider every year. In Havre and Marseilles, France, one can see the neat printed phrase: "Pie Americaine," and on the carte du jour of the Mena hotel, just under the shadow of the Sphinx, the homely entry: "Pie de Pomplon a la New York."

Woman's Part in Commerce.

Americans are considered the most highly civilized people on earth because the men are more completely enslaved by their women. The Spartan women who made bowstrings of their hair were no more potent a factor in the military achievements of the Spartan men than are the American women in the commercial achievements of American men.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Life He Liveth.

Though thou be destined to live 3,000 years and as many myriads besides, yet remember that no man loseth other life than that which he liveth, nor liveth other than that which he loseth.—Marcus Aurelius Antoninus.

Make Over Old Firearms.

A large business in making over old firearms is carried on in Belgium. At Liege 8,000 gunsmiths, working principally at home, turn out "antiquities." They transform modern rifles into flintlocks.

Iron Rings for Ornaments.

Women of the Ivory Coast in Africa lengthen their necks by wearing iron rings. Every year they put a new ring round the neck, which they can stretch so far that it is nothing unusual to find it as long as the face.

Can He Get Her in New York?

A New York paper recently contained the advertisement of a man who wants a wife with the following qualifications: "Must be handsome, young, rich, sweet tempered, companionable, not given to dissipation, willing to stay home nights, and must not smoke, drink or gamble."

This Patience Not a Virtue.

"A lot o' folks' patience," said Uncle Eben, "resembles dat of de man who stays in de house an' waits for de snow to melt, regardless of de people dat's fallin' down on his sidewalks."

Economy.

The man who has been accustomed to shave himself may not damage the barbering business much, when he lets his whiskers grow, but some laundry may be affected.

A Thought.

I am coming to believe that there is work for everybody somewhere. It may not be the work we want, and it may not be the place in which we desire to stay, but it will supply creature comforts, and that is a great deal, says Home Chat. Most of us have to do unpleasant things, from time to time, but it is quite possible to do them cheerfully.

Removing Cinders from Eye.

A simple remedy for removing cinders from the eye is to dip a small and perfectly clean camel's hair brush in water and pass it over the ball of the eye. This operation requires little skill and generally removes all particles of dust instantly without danger of inflammation. Of course, this remedy is not suggested for the train, where no one could get the brush.

Where Life is Dearer.

In Germany changes costing $125,000 have been ordered in a coal mine to make it safe for the miners, an action well calculated to make vested rights throw a fit.

The Czar's Intentions.

A weekly paper has discovered that the largest room in the world is at St. Petersburg. This will probably be the room utilized to hold the grocerians of the czar's good intentions.
